Chronic Nasal Catarrh which

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.—Dull headache, constant pain in the head, dull aches, discharge falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, and a sense of fullness; the nose is clear, the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with seals from ulcers; the voice is hoarse, and has lost its power; the breath is offensive, small and fast; the pulse; there is a sensation of dizziness, with vertigo, a loss of appetite, and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case; the rest are symptoms of disease, and not of catarrh, but the above symptoms suit in consumption, and end in the grave.
No disease is more deceptive and dangerous than catarrh.

By its mild, soothing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, sold by druggists everywhere, 50 cents.

DAILY REPUBLICAN.

HAMPTON & MOSSER, Prop'trs.
DECATUR, ILLINOIS.

Entered at the Post Office as Decatur, Illinois,

TUESDAY EVE., AUG. 28, 1868.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President,
BENJAMIN HARRISON, of Indiana.
For Vice President,
LEVI P. MORSE, of New York.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

JOSEPH W. FIFIELD, of McLean County.
For Lieutenant-Governor, LYMAN B. BAY, of Grundy County.

For Secretary of State, L. N. PEARSON, of McDonough County.

For State Treasurer,
CHARLES BICKEL, of St. Clair County.

For State Auditor,
C. W. PALEY, of Jefferson County.

For Attorney General, GEORGE HUNT, of Edgar County.

For Trustee of State University, ALEX. MCLEAN, of K. M. McCARTY, A. HALL,

For Congress,
NATHAN H. ROWELL, of McLean County.

Member of the Board of Equalization, WILLIAM O. JONES, of Logan County.

The President calls for a bigger club although he has never tried the one given him by congress.

The funeral of the late John D. Gillette will take place this afternoon on his late residence at Elkhart, Ill.

Mr. Postmaster Judd, of Chicago, is not by any means an offensive partisan or pugnacious party, but he has a wicked partner who will not permit the President's civil service reform policy to fall into innocuous desuetude.

The London Chronicle of Wednesday last referred to the Republican opposition to the fisher on trawl as "an unworthy attempt to make party capital out of a question which might involve two great countries in war." What it will now say of Mr. Cleveland's specific message upon the subject, which is a practical endorsement of the Republican position, remains to be seen.

New Brunswickers have taken time by the forelock, and are entitled to the credit of drawing first blood in the game of retaliation. Some parties from across the line in Maine went over into the province the other day to pick blueberries, and had their teams seized by the Blue Noses. The irate officials will sell the Yankee outfit unless Mr. Cleveland interposes, which he says he cannot do without more law.

Gen. HARRISON is working on his letter of acceptance, but, inasmuch as Cleveland, who was nominated two weeks earlier than he, has not yet formally signified his purpose to accept, he cannot be blamed for withholding him until the great Buffalo hopper has planted himself either on or off the St. Louis platform.

Mr. Cleveland is showing in this his timid cowardly tactics. He made the platform on which the convention nominated him, and now he is afraid to take any position whatever lest advantage be taken of it. He wants to force Harrinson to show his hand first. The gross bully, like bullies generally, is a coward.

The Old Schomer.

Mr. Cleveland's scheme to work up a boom for himself by his retaliatory message is beginning to reveal itself. That it was a well-understood plan is almost apparent. On the day that the message was issued, the chairman of the Ohio Democratic state committee sent the following dispatch to leading Democratic oil over Ohio and other western states:

COLUMBUS, Aug. 21, 1868.

Have prominent Irishmen send congratulatory telegrams to President Cleveland on his success in his efforts to secure the restoration of order if possible. — J. B. COVINS.

Chairman of Ohio State Com. Committee.

It does not appear that this plan resulted in many telegrams from "Prominent Irishmen," but the scheme was worked, and evidently with the approval and connivance of Mr. Cleveland himself.

This yellow fever seems to be slowly but surely gaining a foothold at Jacksonville, Florida, and there is now but little prospect that it will receive any check before the advent of frost. It is not reassuring any virulent aspect yet, but there is a slow increase in the number of cases, and all portions of the city seem to be affected. The inhabitants have fled, at least all gone who are able to go, and communication with other points having been cut off by the poor people who are left will soon suffer for the necessities of life. The outlook is by no means cheerful.

This changing from Cleveland to Harrison is beginning to get monotonous.
Every day some paper has a string of names of people who have deserted the old rotten bulk of Democracy and come out for Harrison and Morton. The epidemic is showing itself right here in Central Illinois, too, even under the shadow of the dome of the capitol. A Springfield dispatch of yesterday has the following:

At a meeting of the Irish-American Terminus Association here this evening thirty-eight Irishmen came in and signed the rolls. They stood up enthusiastically and voted for a resolution not only to support Major James A. Connelly for Governor in this district, but to vote for the entire Republican ticket from top to bottom.

Next!

A Veteran at Macon.

EDWARD REYNOLDS: We have time and again explained why we were for Harrison in preference to Cleveland. Is it possible for any one who wore the blue during the dark days of the rebellion to put into words the feelings of a Union soldier in putting down the rebels' rebellion and preserving the Union and making it possible to have a country over which a president of the United States might preside, can be anything but a Republican? Why, his duty and his love of country, of home and friends, of fraternity, charity and loyalty to his comrades in arms, to the widows and orphans of his dead comrades, call for him to vote the Republican ticket. Why should he vote for Cleveland in preference to Harrison? We admit frankly that such a reason is far beyond our conception.

The English language is so full of the words of the British tongue as to subjugate the rest, we give it up. We cannot comprehend it. Will some poor deluded Union soldier who is hurrying for Cleveland explain? Come, now, let us hear from you. If you do not like to give your views through the REPUBLICAN, use the columns of the REVIEW. We read them both; or the Tribune, either; either one will give space for such a review.

Special Correspondence.

CHICAGO, June 10.—Here are portraits of two intellectual women—Mrs. T. B. Carre, who has recently been elected a member of the Cook county board of education in this city, and Mrs. Clara Foitz, the California lawyer and editor.

Miss Clara Foitz is trying to get a direct line of steamers from Fernandina and St. Augustine to Orlando, Fla. She has been writing to the steamship companies and the railroads in Orlando, asking if they would not allow her to go to Orlando.

Miss Clara Foitz has a romantic history.

When a very young girl she eloped with a man named John Foitz, and lived in a log cabin in the woods.

Her parents were shocked by the marriage, and she was sent to a school in San Francisco, Calif., where she studied law.

She is now a lawyer and has been admitted to the bar.

She is said to be attractive, and she entertains clients in her office.

She is said to be a good lawyer.
